Nowadays he is a working class Bradford lad, a husband to Beth, a father to two girls, an Ambassador for Restored (a domestic abuse charity) a Public Speaker, Actor, columnist for Sorted Mens Magazine and is best known as 'Gareth Angel', one of the UK's few Christian Professional Wrestlers having turned his lifelong love of wrestling into a career. He has shared the Gospel with hundreds across the UK and recently planted 'wrestling church' and a training school, partnering with Fountains Church in Bradford, which was also featured in a BBC One Documentary last year.

Gaz also works for Green Pastures, helping churches house the homeless across Yorkshire and before that, spent 7 years working with Christians Against Poverty, both in their head office and on the frontline running a CAP Centre, helping others out of debt and into work.
